

Beef Cattle Seminar January 8

URBANA, ILL.

Beef cattle producers are encouraged to optimize their opportunities and attend a workshop focused on overcoming the challenges of 2012. The meeting will be held January 8 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Sauk Valley Community College in Dixon, Ill.

Speakers from the University of Illinois, American Angus Association, Dekalb Feeds and Wyoming Vet Service will highlight handling high feed costs in cow herds, new era in sire selection, management strategies for drought stressed pastures, technologies for improved feed efficiency in feedlot cattle and calving season tips and herd health management.

Cost to participate is $15 per person and includes continental breakfast, lunch and hand-out material. Please register online at <http://web.extension.illinois.edu/clw> or by calling 815-835-2070 by January 3, 2013.

The seminar is sponsored by University of Illinois Extension, Sauk Valley Community College and Whiteside County Cattleman's Association.

Δ