

Four State Dairy Program

URBANA, ILL.

Focusing on improving profitability, dairy experts from around the nation will gather on June 10-11 at Dubuque, Iowa for the Four-State Dairy Nutrition and Management Conference.

“This program offers excellent opportunities for producers to learn more about health, management, and housing developments that can help improve profitability,” said Mike Hutjens, University of Illinois Extension dairy specialist.

The seminar starts at 8 a.m. June 10 with a pre-conference seminar covering sources of yeast and factors influencing yeast viability, along with hot feeding strategies to maximize milk yield, and dealing with risk issues.

The program will be held at the Grand River Center.

Sponsors of the conference include: University of Illinois Extension, Iowa State University Extension, University of Minnesota Extension, and University of Wisconsin Extension. Platinum co-sponsors are Arm & Hammer Animal Nutrition and Diamond V.
