

Heuer Sons Hold Hay, Equipment Expo

CAPE GIRARDEAU, MO

Heuer Sons in Cape Girardeau recently held its Hay & Equipment Expo which was dedicated to the late Ivan Heuer. About 200 people were in attendance.

Many factory representatives in attendance getting bigger we're just trying to keep up with the changes in agriculture."

Those present enjoyed a dinner were able as well to brush up on the latest haying equipment. Jeff Knoll, AGCO equipment specialist, was guest speaker and he presented the recent

Among those attending the Heuer Sons Hay & Equipment Expo and enjoying the program and display were the Harlan Hacker family of Perryville, Mo.

Photo by Lanny Copeland

were able to answer questions about the equipment and tractors on display in Heuer Sons newly expanded service center.

"We have doubled the size of our shop with a two-ton overhead crane which allows us to set up our heavy equipment and work on it more efficiently," said John Heuer, vice-president of Heuer Sons. "We're growing; as everything is advancements that company is offering for hay growers. Cousin Carl of Radio C106.1 entertained as he served as Master of Ceremonies.

Heuer expressed his gratitude to all those who attended the program.

"I just want to thank everyone who showed up, both customers and, hopefully, future customers," he said. Δ