

Illinois Dealer Elected Chairman Of NAEDA Board

FENTON, MO.

Tom Nobbe, of Waterloo, IL, has been elected chairman of the board of directors of the North American Equipment Dealers Association (NAEDA).

NAEDA, one of the longest running trade associations in North America, provides a wealth of service to approximately 5,000 equipment dealers across the United States and Canada. Services provided, with the help of its affiliates, include legislative and industry support that promotes positive business environments for North American equipment dealers.

Nobbe also serves as CEO of Wm. Nobbe & Co., Inc. (www.WmNobbe.com), a seven-location John Deere equipment dealership serving southern Illinois and southeastern Missouri. Wm. Nobbe locations include Waterloo, Steeleville, and Jerseyville in Illinois and Scott City, Ste. Genevieve, Farmington and St. Peters in Missouri.

Nobbe is serving his second, three-year term on the NAEDA board from the Midwest Equipment Dealers Association (MEDA). During his tenure with NAEDA he served as NAEDA's Secretary & Treasurer. He also served as Chairman of the Equipment Dealers Foundation, Chairman of the Manufacturers Relation Committee and Chairman of the Audit & Finance Committee. Other roles include past Board Member and President of the Mississippi Valley Equipment Dealers Association.

Nobbe assumed the role of chairman on March 1, 2013. Blaine Bingham, of Mesa, AZ, also was elected as first vice chairman of the NAEDA board and Brian Carpenter, of Middlebury, VT, was elected as second vice chairman. Bingham represents the Far West Equipment Dealers Association, while Carpenter represents Northeast Equipment Dealers Association. Also serving on the NAEDA Executive Committee is Joe Nash of Mississippi, immediate past chairman and Gary Manke of Wisconsin who represents all the NAEDA affiliated associations.

Wm. Nobbe is currently in their fourth generation of ownership, and has been a strong standing supporter of the agriculture and turf communities since 1907. Δ
