

Southern Illinois Beef Conference Offered July 14

EDWARDSVILLE, ILL.

The 2011 Southern Illinois Beef Conference will be held on Thursday, July 14 in the Applied Science Center at Rend Lake College, Ina, Illinois. This one-day conference is designed to provide take-home knowledge and current information on cow-calf topics. The conference will cover such topics as Trichomoniasis, utilizing distillers grains in rations, modified versus killed vaccines, pasture weed management, and nutritional programming of the fetus. A wide range of exhibitors will also be present to discuss their latest items for beef producers.

More information and registration can be found at <http://web.extension.illinois.edu/jefferson/> or by contacting Teresa L. Steckler, Extension Specialist, Animal Systems/Beef, Mt. Vernon Extension Center, 618-242-0780, tsteckle@illinois.edu. Register by July 1 to receive a discounted registration rate of $15, which includes lunch. Late and at-the-door registration is $20 but does not guarantee your lunch.

If you need dietary or disability accommodations to participate in this program, please call 618-242-0780 by July 1st. Δ
